SAVE THE DATE!

INNOVATION, SOCIAL BENEFIT, & JOB CREATION
THE POTENTIAL OF SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN SOUTH JERSEY
A SUMMIT FOR BUSINESS, NONPROFIT, ACADEMIC AND GOVERNMENT LEADERS

Friday, February 18, 2011
9 AM – 2:00 PM
Rutgers University – Camden, Campus Center
326 Penn Street, Camden, NJ 08102

Speakers from the Sustainable Business Network, E3 Bank, Imprint Investors, Greyston Bakery, FreshBox Catering at Lutheran Social Services, and others have been confirmed.
The purpose of this summit is to investigate the value of attracting and supporting social entrepreneurs to South Jersey.

You will learn:

- How nonprofits are using new business models and services to diversify their revenue and create jobs.
- How for-profit businesses can focus on social impact and still make a profit.
- How individual investors, foundations, and others are offering idea-stage, early-stage, and mezzanine-level funding for nonprofit and for-profit social entrepreneurs.

To register for the conference:
Go to www.communityfoundationsnj.org click on “Events”, and then click on “Social Entrepreneurship”.

If you have questions, please contact us at 856-216-8150 or info@communityfoundationsnj.org.

This summit is presented by the Rutgers Center for Urban Entrepreneurship & Economic Development, The Community Foundation of South Jersey and the Rutgers-Camden Office of Economic Development.

RUTGERS
Center for Urban Entrepreneurship & Economic Development (CUEED)

RUTGERS
Office of Economic Development | Camden

community foundation of SOUTH JERSEY