

Eugene G. Spiegle
233 Long Meadow Road
Bedminster, New Jersey 07921
Gene.spiegle@armigerint.com
(908) 507-8228

EXPERIENCE:

Rutgers University, Piscataway, NJ (Livingston Campus)

Assistant Professor of Professional Practice

- Senior Program Director Department SCM New Brunswick -
- Director, Supply Chain Complex Project Management Lab
- Project Management
- Introduction to Supply Chain Management
- Strategies for Supply Chain Management

United Nations, New York City, NY

Director Project Management, Assistant Chief of Security January 2003-December 2010

- Managed all safety and security project for the NYC UN complex
- Projects ranged for $25 million to $100 million
- Projects encompassed the latest state of technology to that of physical construction including all new campus perimeter security, access control systems.
- Assisted architectural and design firms both from the physical and the technical arena to provide practical operating systems.
- Was Safety and Security project management liaison to the Capital Master Plan renovation of the NYC campus buildings a $1.8 billion project.
- Developed counter terrorism security team with NYPD, State and Federal agencies to improve security communication for the United Nations and NYC.

Cambridge Group Inc., Bedminster, NJ 908-507-8228

President and CEO, January 1980 – December 2003

- Develop and produce project manuals for the planning, scheduling and controlling of projects.
- Author of several books entitled "Project Management and Control Tools," "Strategic Planning and Creative Thinking," "Taming a Silent Killer – Your Stress."
- Author of the Project Management Guidelines (PMG) concepts used by the Core of Engineers and numerous other companies. The PMG is a recognized guideline on how to conduct business in a project management environment.
- Have been chosen to represent such prestigious firms as Battelle Memorial Institute, The Conference Board of New York, The A M A and Excel Partnership (the world leader in quality and ISO certification).
- Developed the "Organizational Performance Questionnaire ©," and "Project Management Questionnaire ©," and Project Closeout Questionnaire ©" used to define and plot staff and management perceptions of an organization, project or operating environment. Since its inception in 1985 these questionnaires have been augmented with eight additional areas including Quality, Customer Service and Communication.
- Created a concept known as "Intact PM" a visual concept to better understand and manage the concepts of Project Management.
- A list of client companies is attached along with specific letters of reference supporting the many years of experience and involvement in designing project planning and control techniques, training and supporting project management through a large consulting and training effort.

American Brands, New York City, NY

Executive Vice President Engineering, September 1978 – August 1980

- Responsible for Corporate Engineering process, Capital Planning and budget management
- Managed supervision of engineering departments both at corporate and plant levels world wide
- Responsible for automation, manufacturing and technology development of manufacturing operations and facilities.
- Responsible for the implementation of a corporate wide project management culture, projects and reporting process. Annual project budget was in excess of 1.5 billion dollars

Arnold Baking Corporation, Greenwich, CT

Executive Vice President Corporate Engineering, - June 1976 August 1978

- Responsibilities similar to those of American Brands
- Was hired for expertise in the field of Project Management and the implementation of project management throughout the corporate environment including all holdings such as the Orowheat Corporation.
- Interim General Manager of the Greenwich operation during the search for a new manager.

GRC Corporation, Hudson, Ohio and NYC
CEO and Co-Founder – 1954 - 1974

- A multi-million dollar organization who designed, built and installed automated systems to the food, cosmetic, pharmaceutical and automotive industries
- Pioneers in automated pneumatic controls and their adoption by various industries
- Sold the company to General Motors robotics division in 1974
- During the twenty years of ownership and management was responsible for the project management of all projects both national and international. Projects varied in scope and cost from manufacturing line modifications costing several thousand dollars to the design build of state-of-the-art automation costing in the millions.

Education:

- Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Ohio University
- Masters and PhD in Forensic Psychology, Western Reserve University
- Bachelors in Mechanical Engineering Case Institute of Engineering

Professional Associations:

- Member of Project Management Institution
- American Society of Manufacturing Engineers
- Society of Military Engineers
- American Society of Quality and Performance

Publications and Articles:

- Article, "Western Hemisphere meets Eastern Hemisphere: Trade, Investment and Development Opportunities through – "A process Called Project Management." Published August 2015.
- Book, "Project Management – The Basics for Success," Third Edition, 2013 Cambridge Press – ISBN – 18853-18-01-04
- Book, "Project Management – The Basics for Success," Third Edition, 2014 Translated into Chinese and used as text book in China
- Book, "Taming a Silent Killer – Your Stress," 2002 Cambridge Press – ISBN 1-885318-01-04

