The Chicago TREND Corporation, Chicago, IL 2014-Present
Co-Founder and CEO

Drafted and implemented business plan for Chicago TREND, a social enterprise that secured over $7 million of startup funding from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation and the Chicago Community Trust. Led launch of the company that will stimulate retail development to accelerate neighborhood transformation. Honed and refined data analytic and econometric work, created financial and transaction facilitation tools and identified potential projects. Presented to government, corporate and civic leaders and stakeholders to communicate the value proposition and impact potential of Chicago TREND. Applied research includes oversight of the analysis of survey outputs from over 16,300 people in Chicago and the creation of sophisticated data analytics models that predict the impact of retail changes on shopping patterns and residential moving patterns. Sourced deals and made decision to invest over $10.1 million in transformative retail and mixed-use projects. Raised over $20 million of equity and debt capital from mission investors to strengthen neighborhoods and empower entrepreneurs of color.

Brick City Development Corporation (BCDC), Newark, NJ
Chief Executive Officer

2009-2014

Led this economic development corporation created by Mayor Cory Booker in Newark, NJ. Initiated and facilitated $2 billion of ongoing investment resulting in 5,000+ jobs created. Jump-started construction of new office towers, hotels, industrial facilities, grocery stores and restaurants. Structured, negotiated, analyzed and advocated to obtain tax increment financing, bonds, grants and low interest loans to fill development financing gaps. Handpicked key project executives and team to take projects from pipeline to finish line. Grew loan funds under management to $22 million and achieved certification as a CDFI. Approved loans ranging from $20,000 to $2 million for Newark businesses of all types. Started and grew the organization's database to 12,500+ people for distribution of positive Newark news. Led team of 26 employees and administered $6.2 million annual operating budget. Tenaciously focused on generating fee income, getting cost reimbursement and securing grant funding, resulting in the organization earning nearly 20% of its revenue for first time. Implemented weekly meetings and a detailed project management system to increase organizational efficiency. Navigated successfully in political environment with multiple stakeholders and agendas. Created popular ward-based Technical Assistance Program completed by 550+ Newark residents. Launched "The Small Business" TV show to spotlight 100 unique Newark entrepreneurs. Allocated resources and hired energetic staff to lead or support "high tech initiatives," such as Newark Tech Week, buildinbrickcity.com, hack-a-thons, meet-ups, book signings, etc. Designated funds and created programs to assist minority developers and contractors. Won highest national award for excellence as an economic development organization.
