Master of Information Technology Program Learning Goals
Spring 2015

1. Business Technology Knowledge Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Information Technology degree will be able to demonstrate business technology knowledge.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to understand the current practices and technology used in businesses.
b. Students will be able to analyze and solve complex business problems with cutting edge technology.

2. Information Technology Knowledge Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Information Technology degree will be able to demonstrate information technology knowledge.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to understand basic information technology concepts.
b. Students will be able to analyze and solve information technology problems.

3. Critical Thinking Skills Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Information Technology degree will be able to understand complex business situations and provide solutions to improve current business practices.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to identify problems in a situation.
b. Students will be able to find innovative solutions.

4. Communication Skills Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Information Technology degree will be able to effectively communicate in a way that demonstrates sensitivity to an audience’s needs.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to communicate information in a clear concise manner.
b. Students will be able to communicate relatively complex ideas in an understandable manner.