Master of Accountancy in Governmental Accounting (Online)

Join the #14 online graduate business program nationwide

The Rutgers Business School Master of Accountancy in Governmental Accounting is a flexible, online accounting program for people who are looking to advance their career accounting careers in the public or nonprofit sectors.

Ranked #14 in the nation for Best Online Graduate Business Programs, is the first and only program of its kind available entirely online, through Rutgers Business School. If you’re looking for a flexible, online accounting master’s program that fits into your busy life and will help you advance an accounting career in the public or nonprofit sector, then the Rutgers Business School Master’s in Governmental Accounting is for you.

Faculty Profile: Irfan Bora

Professor Bora is the former Chief Financial Officer and Director of Finance and Management at the New Jersey Meadowlands Commission where he managed the financial operations of the agency and served as the administrator of the Meadowlands Intermunicipal Tax Sharing Formula. He has helped direct the Masters Degree Program in Governmental Accounting as its Associate Director for over 10 years. He was instrumental in developing the online component of the program making it the first complete online graduate program at Rutgers Business School.

Curriculum

The Master of Accountancy in Governmental Accounting program is a 30-credit program that balances accounting theory and practice, and prepares students for the New Jersey CPA Exam. Taught by industry leaders and expert Rutgers Business School faculty, our program is designed to prepare you in the rapidly expanding field of government financial management, accounting, and auditing.
Master of Accountancy in Governmental Accounting

Sampling of Courses

- Accounting for Managers
- Advanced Topics in Governmental Accounting
- Concepts in Auditing
- Design Development of Information Systems
- Ethical Issues in Public Financial Management
- Government Budgeting Systems
- Governmental Accounting and Auditing
- Public Financial Management
- Public Sector Auditing
- Management Control in Nonprofit Organizations

Program Quick Facts

Program: 100% online
Credits: 30 credits
Application Deadline: Fall: Aug. 1 | Spring: Jan. 2
Program Cost (Estimate):

Full Time:
$11,340.00: (In-state/out-of-state)

Part Time:
$945.00/credit (In-state/out-of-state)

How to Apply

Apply online:
business.rutgers.edu/govmaccy/admissions
Please visit business.rutgers.edu to learn about upcoming information sessions and open houses.

Contact

Phone: 973-353-1234
Email: admit@business.rutgers.edu

Career Outcomes

Designed for professionals who have already begun their careers, the Masters in Governmental Accounting program positions graduates to advance in the field of public financial management or transition from the private to the public sector. Career management services include career guidance, résumé assistance, and mentoring.

“\nI have spent more than a decade in the governmental accounting industry and I feel that this program was an exceptional learning experience that aided me in my advancement."

–Michael Campo,
Director, Plodzik & Sanderson, PA