Master of Accountancy in Financial Accounting Program
Learning Goals and Objectives

1. Communication Skills Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Accountancy in Financial Accounting degree will be able to effectively communicate in a way that demonstrates sensitivity to an audience’s needs.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to communicate information in a clear concise manner.
   b. Students will be able to communicate relatively complex ideas in an understandable manner.

2. Financial Accounting Knowledge Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Accountancy in Financial Accounting degree will be able to demonstrate financial accounting knowledge.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to understand advanced financial accounting concepts.
   b. Students will be able to analyze and solve financial accounting problems.

3. Critical Thinking Skills Learning Goal
Students graduating with a Master of Accountancy in Financial Accounting degree will be able to understand complex business situations and provide solutions to improve current business practices.

Objectives
a. Students will be able to draw upon an understanding of diverse business concepts to identify the underlying internal control and business strategic root causes for problems.
   b. Students will be able to work in group settings as effective members of teams assigned to find innovative solutions.

4. Ethics Learning Goals
Students graduating with a Master of Accountancy in Financial Accounting degree will be able to recognize and evaluate ethical issues arising in a broad spectrum of accounting and general business contexts. They will learn how to make sound accounting judgments and effective business decisions that also adhere to socially responsible and professional ethical standards.

Objectives
a. Students will be able recognize and evaluate ethical issues in both domestic and international business contexts.
   b. Students will be able to make sound accounting judgments and effective business decisions that adhere to socially responsible and professional ethical standards.