Steps to accessing RNSBDC Services:

Start-up and Established businesses can access RNSBDC services in 3 ways:

1. Via our website: www.business.rutgers.edu/rnsbdc and completing the Request for Counseling (RFC) form on the home page.
2. By sending email to: rnsbdc@business.rutgers.edu
3. By telephone to our main number: 973-353-5950

All clients are required to have a signed RFC on file before services can be offered. This is nationwide SBA-SBDC policy. Client who complete the electronic RFC endorse the form by clicking “submit” and this is considered a valid signature of acceptance of conditions of service, therefore client are encouraged to use this as the best and most expedient form of accessing services.

Once a signed or e-RFC is received client will be directed to the next appropriate stage of business services based on their level of business establishment or maturity. All prospective entrepreneurs and start-ups are required to attend the Entrepreneurs’ Q&A session offered on Wednesdays 10am-12noon or 4-6pm (check our website for schedule). Please call for exact time for the week. There is a $10.00 per person fee to attend, however pre-registration is required since a maximum of 10 businesses can be facilitated for each session.
