Rutgers Business School Innovation Committee

Apply Today and get firsthand interaction with recruiters

What is RBSIC?
A dynamic organization that is the liaison between all Rutgers Business School students and the Office of Career Management.

What are our roles?
RBSIC members aid representatives from the Office of Career Management during all Fall and Spring Career Events, including the exclusive Business School Career Fairs. Members will also assist in other special programming such as Dining & Business Etiquette events, Speed Networking, Business Forum and much more!

Why should you join?
As a member, you will gain insight on the “behind-the-scenes” action and planning for career events. You will get hands-on experience working with corporate individuals, and previous members have landed internships because of the extra one-on-one time with recruiters!

Interested? Apply Today!
If you have what it takes to become a part of RBSIC, please email Leigh-Anne Cobb (lcobb@business.rutgers.edu) a copy of your resume and a brief response to the question on the following page by January 25, 2017 at 3pm. We look forward to hearing from you!

Application Form

Members of RBSIC are expected to be hardworking, punctual, and diligent students. A minimum GPA of 3.00 is required. Members are required to assist with the majority of the Office of Career Management events each semester. If you can devote your time to a well-established RBS organization, while adding to the success of its many recruitment events, and engage with corporate partners, then send in your application today!

Email Leigh-Anne Cobb (lcobb@business.rutgers.edu) a copy of your resume and a brief response to the following questions:

A. Briefly explain why you want to be part of the Rutgers Business School Innovation Committee.

B. Please include in your email your name, RUID, class year, GPA, and major(s).

C. Are you available to assist with:
   - Mock Career Fair on February 2nd (8:30am-1:20pm)
   - RBS Expo and Networking Reception on February 9th (11:30am-1:30pm)
   - RBS Career Fair on February 10th (at least two hours between 10am-4pm)
   - At least one of the Business Forum courses during the semester (Monday/Thursdays 8:40am-10am or 12-1:20pm)

Successful applicants will be contacted shortly via email, with instructions on how to schedule an interview.

Applications are due by Wednesday, January 25th, 2017 at 3pm!

Thank you for your interest!
