Admissions

We seek a diverse student body to bring to the classroom varying experiences and backgrounds. Rutgers Business School - Newark and New Brunswick admits those students who, in the opinion of the Graduate Admissions Committee, show promise of succeeding in the program. Primary consideration is given to the applicant’s scholastic record, including the distribution and quality of work, and the GMAT/GRE score. Other considerations include professional work experience, professional appraisals, civic leadership and extracurricular participation, responses on the application form, and the essay.
