

Business of Fashion Concentration & Minor - Newark

Description

The Business of Fashion program was designed to bridge the gap between creativity and business acumen. It is for artistic individuals who want to solidify their understanding of business, as well as for business students who want to learn how to apply solid business practices to the arts industries. Rutgers Business School has a long-standing history of leveraging its connections, reputation, and proximity to the epicenter of global business. These same advantages with New York City's fashion industry present unprecedented opportunities for our future business of fashion graduates.
