

Distinguished Alumni Leadership Award

Mark V. Anquillare was the president and chief operating officer of Verisk Analytics through January 2023. Verisk (Nasdaq: VRSK) is a leading strategic data analytics and technology partner to the global insurance industry. It empowers clients to strengthen operating efficiency, improve underwriting and claims outcomes, combat fraud and make informed decisions about global risks, including climate change, extreme events, ESG and political issues. Through advanced data analytics, software, scientific research and deep industry knowledge, Verisk helps build global resilience for individuals, communities and businesses.

Mark Anquillare

He has more than 30 years of financial and executive leadership—developing and implementing the Verisk’s short—and long—term plans and executing its vision. Mark’s deep experience in the insurance industry and focus on driving growth, combined with his analytical and data—focused perspective, kept Verisk at the forefront of the changes shaping the industry. His passion for innovation and smart investments in technology moved the company forward.

Mark served as Verisk’s CFO starting in 2007, during the company’s IPO in 2009, and through 2016. From 2016, he’s served as Verisk’s COO and led the company’s insurance vertical. Through these roles, he’s been instrumental in growing the company’s insurance vertical and aligning the company’s customer experience and enterprise risk management with its core operations.

Before joining Verisk, Mark worked at Prudential Financial, focusing on life insurance and property and casualty operations.

Mark holds an MBA from the Rutgers Business School and a BBA from the University of Notre Dame.

He serves on the board of directors and as a member of the audit committee of CPSI (NASDAQ: CPSI), a healthcare solutions company. Mark is active in his community and serves on the Rutgers Business School Advisory Board.
